Charity Purpose: The establishment of reliable facts on the restriction of religious freedom worldwide. The making available of results of such research to other researchers, politicians, advocates as well as the media. The introduction of the subject of religious freedom into academic research and curricula. The backing up of advocacy for victims of violations of religious freedom in the religious, legal and political world. Cover religious freedom concerns wherever they occur in the world. Serve discriminated and persecuted believers wherever they are located. To make affordable publications and other research available in the Global South.
